A Space to Think

This event is ...

In the company of like-minded people bringing together a variety of perspectives and opinions

My NREN: drivers for change and how best to respond to change (own experience and context as well as drawing on experience of others)

- To listen
- To question and challenge (yours and somebody else's perceptions)
- To jot things down
- To doodle
- To walk about (if it helps to focus)
- To take away what is relevant

1. To put together a plan (summary of present, end goal, journey in-between, why and how)
2. To present as a plan (not today!)
3. Any support actions from EaPConnect and GÉANT
