1	Of course it is! Community is what the R&E sector is all about. Maybe include industry sponsors in some way	6/17/2023 6:51 PM
2	Many of the known members of the community have received it. Don't know whether to change anything.	6/16/2023 6:06 PM
3	N/A	6/16/2023 12:28 PM
4	maybe with the with the need to have the most robust vote also maybe 1 "institutional" award and 1 technical one?	6/16/2023 9:21 AM
5	yes	6/15/2023 2:34 PM
6	Yes, it's great to see staff being recognized.	6/15/2023 4:20 AM
7	Don't know how valuable it is, but I'm all for acknowledging people's efforts. I can't say whether this is the right way or the right place to do that. I'm from outside Europe and don't know any of the people or their work. If you're going to have awards, just make them really short and sharp without long waffling speeches.	6/15/2023 4:07 AM
8	It's very valuable, please continue doing it.	6/14/2023 9:24 PM
9	Yes it is valuable. Maybe one award for achievements and one encouragement award for a bit more junior excellent performer?	6/14/2023 5:33 PM
10	Yes, no need to change, keep it flexible. Would maybe be nice to hear direct community testimony about the person(s) (am fine with 2-3 winners per year tbh) rather than generic intros from committees.	6/14/2023 2:28 PM
11	Community Award is valuable part of the programme, no doubt about it. It's kind of "hall of fame" kind of thing.	6/14/2023 2:12 PM
12	Yes, community is one of the most important layers of Geant's mission, so this award makes a lot of sense!	6/14/2023 1:59 PM
13	Yes it is a valuable award	6/14/2023 11:28 AM
14	Define community - TNC is global (or is it? maybe a european conference with global guests) yet nominations/engagement is very Europe centric	6/14/2023 11:10 AM
15	No. It's not valuable at all. Just boring and every year the same with changing faces.	6/14/2023 10:52 AM
16	It is very important to celebrate the community. I would focus on one single winner.	6/14/2023 10:10 AM
17	The hub reminded me at an organizational design format called "Open Space". This needs much, much more moderation and in advance information and coordination. Also, I would appreciate more systemic and methodical support to potential contributers. Organizational design is much more challanging and can not be tackled by providing some tables and flip charts.	6/14/2023 10:02 AM
18	Neutral	6/14/2023 7:32 AM
19	Community awards are valuable and fun. Take care that Awards do not seem to become political. May have been	6/13/2023 10:31 PM
20	yes and no	6/13/2023 10:21 PM
21	as a newbie I didn't know the people	6/13/2023 9:23 PM

22	I believe that the Community Award is an important and valuable part of the TNC program. It celebrates the achievements and contributions of individuals or groups within the community and helps create a sense of inspiration and motivation for others.	6/13/2023 8:43 PM
23	Yes, both, to engage and to improve!	6/13/2023 8:18 PM
24	yes. Criteria and number of nominations would help understand how valuable is this award.	6/13/2023 8:17 PM
25	Absolutely, it is worth recognising these colleagues in the community.	6/13/2023 6:53 PM
26	It is good to celebrate important contributions, so I think the community award should be kept. Given that TNC is the biggest event for our community, GEANT's community programmes could have higher profile on the main stage. It was good to have Paul Rouse present the award, to highlight GEANT's community projects. More presence would be good to highlight community programmes such as Emerging NRENs, Future Talent, mentoring in its various forms etc.	6/13/2023 4:11 PM
27	Its great to see people being recognised in such a great way. Are there more awards that can be presented?	6/13/2023 3:45 PM
28	Yes, it's valuable part. But may be one award, instead of two, will be more interesting to see :)	6/13/2023 3:39 PM
29	Yes, it is.	6/13/2023 3:14 PM
30	Very very important!	6/13/2023 3:00 PM
31	yes it is! We shall induce people to vote and participate more!	6/13/2023 2:50 PM
32	It is a nice to have.	6/13/2023 2:43 PM
33	No, very good	6/13/2023 2:36 PM
34	Please do run it again	6/13/2023 2:35 PM
35	keynote and award has been very poor.	6/13/2023 2:34 PM
36	yes , appreciate consideration of sufficient geographical diversity	6/13/2023 2:17 PM
37	No. It's a great thing that the people who gets the award feels appreciated since there are a big audience watching the event with big applause, but on the whole the Award-thing is an interest for an inner circle of people.	6/13/2023 2:16 PM
38	The community award is a valuable part of the programme. One award per year as a possible change?	6/13/2023 2:08 PM
39	In previous events, there were more of them	6/13/2023 2:04 PM
40	It is a very valuable part of the programme. Should continue.	6/13/2023 1:48 PM
41	I think it is very valuable and I like that the ceremony is held on stage, in front of the community!	6/13/2023 1:44 PM
42	Yes, it shows that engagement is honored and therefore is a valuable part of the programme.	6/13/2023 1:41 PM
43	Definitely. Really love the ability to nominate and subsequently vote.	6/13/2023 1:40 PM
44	Yes, and no.	6/13/2023 1:35 PM
45	I like the community award but feel there should only be one winner each year. Giving it to multiple people devalues the impact. I don't understand why the Vietsch medal is awarded at TNC.	6/13/2023 1:31 PM
46	I have no opinion on this one	6/13/2023 1:24 PM
47	Yes, it is.	6/13/2023 1:20 PM
48	Yes, community awards are a valuable way to recognise those who have worked hard in the community for many years.	6/13/2023 1:17 PM
49	maybe.	6/13/2023 1:16 PM
50	Yes, no	6/13/2023 1:15 PM
